

	Adults	Families/Children	Online
A	Art of the Matter' - get local artists to donate small pieces of work which can be displayed in local libraries or an art gallery. Ask for sealed bids where the highest bid wins or make it into an evening with live bidding.	Art Attack - run an arty competition for children/students to create artwork based around a fun theme!	Do this from home and run an online auction with all donations given either via Ebay or Facebook. Make sure you share the link with all your family and friends.
B	Bonkers Bingo! Make a full house of it – get some totally crazy donated prizes for a line, two lines and full house for each game – for example one line wins a lemon, two lines wins a pencil and a full house wins a bottle of ketchup. There's no end to the silly prizes and silly fun and the charity benefits! BINGO!	Bake it off! Everyone bring their speciality cake, biscuit or brownie in. Charge people to join in and then make someone Paul Hollywood for the hour. A blind baking round with a taste from each bake, with one being declared the winner and then sell the remaining cakes and slices for charity afterwards!	When you get together with family and friends online, why not add a charity touch to it by playing a game of bingo together, for a small entry fee!
C	Car boot sale. One person's trash is another person's treasure. Sell some of your old or unwanted stuff and donate the money – simple!	Car Wash - get the sponges out and get everyone in the family/street involved. Plus clean cars for everyone!
D	Disco - turn back the time – turn back the years and bring Studio 54 to you! Get everyone to dress up in theme and hold a 70's disco party, complete with brilliant tunes!	Disney Day. Ask your school, Brownies, business or family to have a 'Disney Day' where you all dress like a character for a small fee. It could be a family barbeque or it could be the end of term for your school – but go for it! We'll make sure you've got the fundraising Bare Necessities!
E	Ebay. Whether you are a seasoned Ebayer or a newbie, this platform is well used and easy to navigate. Simply sort some unwanted, unloved items and sell them online with a % or all the monies coming to us.	EcoDay – Dress green and do good deeds for the day, like litter picking and recycling your rubbish. Do it for the street for a small fee!	There's nothing like the feeling of a good sorting out - why not put your unwanted treasures on line at Ebay for charity. It soon adds up and all that is needed is a quick trip to the Post Office at the end.
F	Football Tournament – contact a local club and hold a 5 a side tournament, with teams from local businesses and through friends. Try and get a cup sponsored by a business and hold your event. Make it an annual event and let it get bigger and better until you're at Wembley!	Face painting - – get creative with face paints at fetes, fairs and children's parties

	Adults	Families/Children	Online
G	Game of Thrones-a-thon. Are you House Stark or House Lannister? Invite all your dire wolves to a sit in of some of your favourite shows, with an entry charge of course!	Give something up. Could you go a day without Wi-Fi? Could your family go a week without the internet? Could your school go a full week without chips? It's going to be hard but think of all that money you could be raising for charity!!
H	Head Shave- could you challenge yourself to brave the shave, lose your locks or cut your curls. Sponsored event and make sure you take before and after pictures.	Halloween Party - Great excuse to dress up and throw a party. Charge entry fees with perhaps trick or treat raffle tickets?	The head shave is a great one to do at home and online. Simply start a Just Giving page for us, send the link with a message to your family & friends and get fundraising!
I	Ice Skating - cover a distance on the ice, learn to twirl or have a race – it's your choice. It's just double the drama on the ice!	Ice cream sale - We can't think of a more delicious way of raising money than this. Charge for extra toppings too!
J	Jean for Genes Day. Yes, we admit that this is a bit cheeky as we started this in the first place but it's a classic and how about taking it up a gear and going the full double denim? Embrace your inner Clarkson and donate to charity at the same time!	Jewellery making. For those of you who are a dab hand at arts and crafts, it's time to grab the wire, pasta and beads and start your own jewellery line. Hold a sale at the end of your creativity for friends, family, school chums and neighbours. Don't forget to send in pictures!
K	Karaoke – arrange your own contest or party	Knit, Paint, Sew, Make - whatever your skill, whether you can knit or sews, use your skills to make things for charity and sell them on to friends and family for charity!
L	Ladies that charity lunch. Instead of going out to a restaurant – take it in turns to cook for each other, giving a donation to charity.	Be a 'Loose Change Look Out Lemur'. Be on the lookout for any loose change you can see – at the park, down the back of the sofa and have a pot for the whole family. Every time you find a penny, drop it in. At the end of the year, you'll have a full pot so take to the bank and get it counted and sent over to us! Every little helps!

	Adults	Families/Children	Online
M	Music Night - calling all Dad Bands, choirs, pub singers or opera stars – charge an entrance fee and for another donation, people attending can request songs!	Mini Marathons - Be a Captain Tom Moore and get sponsored to run 1k or 5k around your town (or your garden)
N	Night Out Pledge - provide vouchers for parents, offering to babysit –either individual or group sitting (bring aspirin)	Non-uniform day - tried, tested and loved by pupils everywhere! Ask students to pay £1 or £2 each to wear their own clothes to school
O	Online auction - set an event date on Facebook, upload some images of donated prizes and get people into a bidding war! See the money rack up!	Obstacle Course -- whether it's a pre-arranged one or simply a muddy climb around your local park, get all the family members involved, including the four legged ones!	The online auction is another great one to do at home and online. It just needs you, a computer, your imagination and energy!
P	Plant Sale. This one requires a little forward planning but for a small amount, buy packets of seeds and plant them up. When they start to look healthy, set up a stall and sell on.	Pancake - flipping brilliant fun! Hold a pancake race and charge an entry fee.
Q	Quiz - Question – What's a great way to raise money for our charity? Answer: Hold a quiz of course! Get everyone together and either charge per person or per team (depending on numbers of people attending). You'll need a confident person to read the questions and sort out the arguments and smack talk when the quiz starts! Why not make it an annual event so that the winners defend their crown?	Quiet time - hold a sponsored silence (parents and teachers will love it!!)	While you are holding an online meeting or get together, why not try an online quiz for charity! Add a fun element for a good cause and get quizzing!
R	Raffle. Ask local businesses for prizes and hold a raffle. It's an effective, age old fundraising event and it does work – people love a prize	Read-a-thon. Get your school, college and clubs (and parents) involved and challenge everyone to get sponsored to read. Could be the same book – could be a different one – the choice is yours!

	Adults	Families/Children	Online
S	Skydive. There, we've said it.	Sponsored Swim. Can you swim as quick as a dolphin or as far as a penguin? Get together and choose either races or lengths at your local pool
T	Tug of war. Two teams, one rope in the classic physical show of strength. Sometimes men against women but this could just be at our family gatherings.	Tuck Shop. Give up your favourite treats and sweets and set up a sweetie stall, selling them for donations to friends and family. The tooth fairy will love you for it too!
U	Unwanted present sale with all donations for them heading our way!	Unusual clothes day. Why not choose an outfit for your Dad or Mum that they must wear to work? You can donate £1 or £2 for them to do it OR they can charge you £5 NOT to do it if it is too hideous. So, you will have a laugh with them trying it on AND charity wins!
V	Volleyball. There's nothing like playing sport in the sun – charge for admission. Why not get someone to man a drink stand too and give a % per drink to charity.	Vegetable patch – one to plan for! You and your family plan a veggie patch, plant them and then sell the vegetables on.
W	Waxing. We'll leave that there.	Walk to school day - Challenge yourself to walk to school every day (or at least a good part of it if you are too far away) and ask for sponsorship	The waxing could be great one to do online and at home. Set up a Just Giving Page and send the link around, complete with a time and date when it will be done live on air!! [ouch!]
X	Xmas Hampers - make up an enormous hamper include food, drink, toys and gifts and then raffle it off	X marks the spot – host a pirate party! Include treasure maps, games and refreshments.

	Adults	Families/Children	Online
Y	YOLO. Have you got something that you've always wanted to do? Here's the reason – your fundraising money will do amazing work. Tick it off your bucket list and get sponsored to do something truly amazing.	Yes to chores! This one is designed for parents to get the most out of the younger members of the family! For one day, for a donation to charity, each family member must say YES to whatever is asked of them and – most importantly – do it. Just one day (and no, you can't over use it parents!)
Z	Zumbathon – Fun, fast, fit way to fundraising	Zany Zebra Day – it could be that you charge to wear black and white or that you must trot everywhere you go like a pony. Be inventive and be a Zany Zebra!	